CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, FULLERTON

Mihaylo Business Honors Program
Enrichment Opportunities

Enrichment Opportunities. Students must complete an approved academic internship or study abroad experience. Suitable programs may be found throughout the CSUF community.

- The recommended study abroad experience is organized each year by the Business Honors program. This study abroad course includes classroom sessions at the host university plus site visits and consulting projects with local businesses.
- Academic internships are offered by most concentration departments and are coordinated through the Center for Internships and Community Engagement (CICE).

Co-curricular Activities Portfolio. Each student shall maintain a co-curricular portfolio including Academic, Leadership, and Volunteer/Service elements. Appropriate activities will be student-reported periodically to the Business Honors Director.

Academic. Students are expected to participate in a minimum of two academic activities each semester in addition to their coursework. Such events will consist primarily of:

- Attendance at seminars/colloquia by business and academic presenters as sponsored by the university, college, or departments.
- Workshops hosted by the business honors program leveraging college and university resources such as the Center for Internships, Center for International Programs, OLLI, Executive Council, etc.

Service. Students shall actively participate in 16 hours of service annually to the college, university and community.

- Service to the community may be either as part of an honors project or an individual activity
- Service to the community may include cross-cultural or inter-generational experiences such as participation in the VITA (tax preparation) program or other program to support to low-income households, collaboration with or service to OLLI, Boys & Girls Clubs, or other senior citizen or youth group, and the like
- Service at the university level may be committee work, service in conjunction with student clubs, or volunteer work on campus

Leadership. Students will be required to make at least one a significant commitment to personal leadership development during the 4-year program. Acceptable activities may include:

- A leadership role in a student club or organization
- Completion of a leadership training track at the Student Leadership Institute
- Active participation in a workshop organized by the Mihaylo Center for Leadership
