

University Associate Certified Risk Manager (UACRM) Designation

Brought to you by:

California State University, Fullerton and

The National Alliance for Insurance Education & Research

DID YOU KNOW?

The National Alliance for Insurance Education & Research has developed The University Associate Certified Risk Manager (UACRM) designation specifically for college students. We have worked with the professors at your school to synchronize our curricula so that you may use your Risk Management and Insurance coursework to earn the prestigious UACRM designation that will help you jumpstart your career right out of school.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

You can earn the UACRM designation by successfully completing a coursework requirement and by passing a two-and-a-half-hour National Alliance CRM exam. The total cost of the UACRM program is $200, which includes all of your study materials and exam-related fees.

YOUR SPECIFIC PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

College Course #	College Course Name	Credit/Exam	Professor	Comments	Registration Fee
FIN 560	Corporate Risk Management and Insurance Seminar	Exam	Xiaoying Xie	Take a National Alliance CRM Principles of Risk Management exam for CRM Principles of Risk Management credit.	$100
FIN 560	Corporate Risk Management and Insurance Seminar	Credit	Xiaoying Xie	Receive credit for CRM Financing of Risk with a C or better in college course. (Register online and we will verify your grade with your professor.)	$100

WHAT WILL THE UACRM DESIGNATION DO FOR YOU?

With this designation after your name, potential employers and clients can recognize the level of your accomplishments, giving you an advantage in the job market and on the job. The UACRM designation shows that you are dedicating yourself to professional education throughout your career, thus demonstrating your commitment to excellence and your profession.

You will also be able to relate better to future colleagues who have also participated in the CRM designation program. They will know the significance of your achievement and will appreciate your practical knowledge of the business.

Once you have made your transition from school to the workplace, you will be ready to begin studying for your Certified Risk Manager (CRM) designation. The CRM designation is a five-part program comprising the following courses of study:

- Principles of Risk Management
- Analysis of Risk
- Control of Risk
- Financing of Risk
- Practice of Risk Management

By earning the UACRM designation, you will have already completed two of the five parts of the CRM designation giving you a significant head start on a designation that typically takes five years to complete.
