Seeking a career and not just a job?

Ferguson is looking for college graduates to begin as Inside Sales Trainees in locations throughout the United States. We pride ourselves on delivering world-class customer service, and you may be an ideal candidate if:

- You want to understand the whole business. We take pride in investing in our associates. As a Sales Trainee, you will work from the ground-up to ensure you have a solid foundation of knowledge to excel in your sales career.
- You want to build long-lasting relationships – with customers and coworkers.
- You value teamwork, drive, and passion. These characteristics, found in our associates, are fundamental to the success and bottom line of our organization.
- You want to be part of something big. Ferguson proudly supports our communities, families, military and educational initiatives. It’s how we make a positive impact to strengthen the communities where we live and work.

College of Ferguson: You will begin your career in a training location for 5 months alongside other trainees, where a proficient trainer will develop your skills in product and operational knowledge of our industry.

Upon completing your time in the College of Ferguson, you will be responsible for assisting with sales functions for existing and prospective customers in your final location. Be prepared to develop and maintain customer relationships, present job quotes and provide accurate pricing/inventory information to customers.

A Bachelor’s Degree OR 8 years of active military service is required. Take the first step toward your career and Apply TODAY!
