MS, Accountancy
Student Learning Objectives

Upon graduation, students will be able to:

1. Think critically and apply conceptual solutions to advanced accounting issues.
2. Design and execute effective research related to accounting topics.
3. Demonstrate effective written communications skills appropriate for the accounting profession.
4. Demonstrate effective oral communication skills appropriate for the accounting profession.
5. Suggest an appropriate course of action to resolve ethical dilemmas related to accounting issues and the accounting profession.
6. Work effectively as part of a team.

Updated Fall 2011