MS, Taxation
Student Learning Objectives

Upon graduation, students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate a technical understanding of and application of advanced tax knowledge.
2. Identify relevant information, think critically, and apply analytical solutions to advanced tax issues.
3. Demonstrate effective written communication skills appropriate for the accounting profession.
4. Demonstrate effective oral communication skills appropriate for the accounting profession.
5. Suggest an appropriate course of action to resolve ethical dilemmas related to tax issues and the accounting profession.
6. Demonstrate advanced research skills using appropriate professional literature.

Updated Fall 2013