THE UNIFORM CPA EXAMINATION
AT A GLANCE

What is the Uniform CPA Examination?
The Uniform CPA Examination (CPA Exam) is a national four-part exam that tests for the basic skills and competencies necessary for entry into the practice of public accountancy. The same test is used in all 50 U.S. states and 5 jurisdictions. The four parts of the CPA Exam consist of Auditing and Attestation, Regulation, Financial Accounting and Reporting, and Business Environment and Concepts.

How Do I Qualify for the CPA Exam?
The minimum requirements for admittance to the CPA Exam in California are as follows:

- Conferral of a Baccalaureate degree or higher
- Completion of a minimum of 24 semester units in accounting subjects
  Accounting Subjects: accounting, auditing, financial reporting, external or internal reporting, financial statement analysis or taxation
- Completion of a minimum of 24 semester units in business-related subjects
  Business-Related Subjects: any accounting subjects in excess of the required 24 units, business administration, economics, finance, business management, marketing, computer science and information services, statistics, business communications, mathematics, business law, or business-related law courses offered by an accredited law school

All education must be documented on official college or university transcripts sent directly to the CBA from the college or university. Candidates with foreign education must have their education evaluated by a CBA-approved foreign credentials evaluation service.

How do I apply for the Uniform CPA Examination?
Go online to www.cba.ca.gov and create a Client Account. After entering your basic information, you will receive an automated email that contains a link to the Client Account log-in page and your temporary password. Follow the instructions on the Client Account to log-in page, create a personal password, and complete all required account information. You will then use your client account to create an application that you must print, sign, and submit along with the application fee to the CBA.

Once the CBA approves your application, you will be able to select the sections of the CPA Exam that you wish to sit for. After you select your CPA Exam sections, you will receive a payment coupon from the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA), which is valid for 90 days. After you submit the payment coupon and fee to NASBA, NASBA will issue a Notice to Schedule (NTS). Once received, you will have nine months in which to schedule the selected sections. To schedule the exam, you can visit Prometric’s website at www.prometric.com.

Uniform CPA Examination Structure

Effective April 1, 2017
Uniform CPA Examination Structure
The Uniform CPA Examination (Examination) comprises four sections: Auditing and Attestation (AUD), Business Environment and Concepts (BEC), Financial Accounting and Reporting (FAR) and Regulation (REG). A maximum of four hours of testing time is provided to complete each section along with 15 minutes for administrative screens and 15 minutes for a standardized break, aggregating four and a half hours.

Testing within the four sections of the Examination is administered in five smaller segments called testlets, which feature multiple-choice questions (MCQs) and task-based simulations (TBSs), and in the case of BEC, three written communication tasks. The number of MCQs and TBSs tested varies depending upon the specific section taken (see pg. 3 Examination Structure by Section). Candidates will receive at least one research question (research-oriented TBS) in the AUD, FAR and REG sections that requires the candidate to search the applicable authoritative literature and find an appropriate reference.

Breaks
During each Examination section, candidates will be offered a standardized, 15-minute break after the first TBS testlet, which is approximately the midpoint – two hours. The decision to place the standardized break after the first TBS testlet is based on the typical time spent by candidates completing the requisite number of MCQs and TBSs. Candidates may use this as a guide to assess their time remaining to complete the Examination, however candidates need to be aware that the actual time spent on the testlets is impacted by the degree of difficulty of the items and candidate preparedness.

The Examination clock pauses for the standardized break after the first TBS testlet is completed. A candidate may choose to decline the standardized break and continue testing, but the break will not be offered again. A candidate who chooses to take the standardized break will leave the testing room, adhering to all security protocols, and will be readmitted to the testing room once cleared by Prometric personnel. If the candidate has not returned and started the second TBS testlet prior to the expiration of 15 minutes, the Examination clock will restart.

Similar to the current Examination, candidates may choose to take an optional break between any two testlets, but it will count against total testing time as the Examination clock continues to run.
