DATE: September 05, 2017

TO: Declared Undergraduate Accounting Majors & Graduate Students, enrolled in the Master of Science in Accountancy or Master of Science in Taxation or MBA concentration in Accounting Programs

FROM: Department of Accounting

SUBJECT: FALL 2017 DEPARTMENT OF ACCOUNTING CASE COMPETITION

The Department of Accounting will host its ninth Case Competition for all accounting students. We are looking for interested students who will compete in this semester’s case competition. Each team will have a minimum of 3 and a maximum of 4 members, composed of undergraduate and graduate students. Each team will present for approximately 15 minutes, and engage in Q & A with the judging panel for approximately 5 minutes. Applicants should be comfortable speaking professionally in front of the judges. The judges will be composed of professionals from the Big 4 accounting firms and CSUF faculty.

Each team will be awarded a Departmental Scholarship:

1st place $1,000 each member
2nd place $500 each member
3rd place $200 each member

How to Form a team

1. Interested students are to form teams on their own. To form your own team, please include the names of all team members on the participation form. Individuals who are not already on a team will be matched up by the Department.
2. The competition is NOT open to the following students:
   a. Freshman
   b. Sophomores who have not finished Acct 201A - Financial Accounting
   c. Students graduating in Fall 2017
3. The team cannot completely be made up of graduates or seniors.
4. The recommended composition of teams for the competition should be: 1-2 sophomores or juniors, 1-2 seniors, 1-2 graduate students.
5. We will select teams for the final competition based on the teams’ written response to case questions (see below for relevant dates and deadlines). You are expected to show critical thinking.
Important Dates

1. September 15: Deadline to submit applications and form teams. Individuals who are not already on a team will be matched up by the Department.

2. September 22: Case will be emailed to each team member along with instructions.

3. October 13: Deadline for case memo submission to the accounting department (hard copy).

4. October 20: The final competing teams will be selected for presentation in front of judges and notified by email.

5. November 3: Presentation of the case in front of judges in SGMH-2301 and/or SGMH 2307, 1:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.
