

World-class Reputation

Since Southern California is a world-class economy in and of itself, the Mihaylo experience prepares our graduates for all regions of the world. The competition is increasing and the bar is getting higher. A master's degree from Mihaylo gives you the competitive advantage:

- We are accredited by AACSB International for both our business administration and accounting programs; only 8 percent of business schools worldwide have achieved this distinction. Mihaylo is one of only five schools in California to have earned dual accreditation.
- Our part-time MBA program is ranked among the top 150 in the nation by U.S. News & World Report.
- Princeton Review annually lists Mihaylo in its "Best Business Schools" publication.
- Cal State Fullerton is ranked in the Top 10 Masters Institutions in the West by U.S. News & World Report and is designated a Top 100 Public Institution by Forbes.
- Mihaylo is a preferred recruiting school for the big four accounting firms and all of the regional accounting firms.
- Our MBA graduate teams have won national awards in the National Small Business Institute's case competition in 14 of the last 15 years.

Faculty Invested in Your Success

We know what it takes to succeed in business. Our students are characterized by their life experience, dedication and drive. The same holds true for our faculty.

Mihaylo employs more than 150 faculty with doctoral degrees in their respective fields and more than 85 part-time instructors directly from the private sector.

Recognized, respected, well-published in their fields and highly experienced in industry and consulting, Mihaylo faculty members' real-time connection to the local and global business community fortifies the core of our curriculum.

Respected Think Tanks

Mihaylo College is home to 15 separate industry research and business development organizations called Centers of Excellence. These independent think tanks generate up-to-date market analyses, consult with business, provide policy advice and seek to foster the growth of commerce. They also provide students with hands-on experience in important research, business consulting and other projects. By building a bridge from where we study to where we work, our students both learn and live what happens in business.

The Mihaylo MBA

How will your career look with a Mihaylo MBA?

Our students can choose to fine-tune their MBA in 11 different areas including Accounting, Business Intelligence, Economics, Entrepreneurship, Finance, Information Systems, International Business, Management, Management Science, Marketing, and Risk Management and Insurance. Or, you may pursue an MBA without a concentration.

With the flexibility to complete your program either full- or part-time, the basic curriculum consists of 10 foundation courses, four concentration courses and a capstone course. The foundation courses assure a complete understanding of the world marketplace while the concentration courses provide a particular area of focus.

The Value of Your Mihaylo MBA is Supported by the Facts:

- An average return on investment of 4.5 years*
- Professors who are leaders in their areas of expertise with exceptionally strong ties to the business community
- Full-time or part-time program options
