Dan Struve is the Founder, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Helpmates Staffing Services. Helpmates is an Irvine-based regional staffing provider, specializing in administrative, customer service, finance, accounting, and logistics staffing. Helpmates specializes in the fields of education, government, international trade, finance, insurance, and real estate.

Dan's career has been in the staffing industry since 1978, and he is involved in several professional associations, including the World President's Organization, the National Human Resources Association and the Society of Human Resource Management. Dan also served as President of the California Staffing Professionals and Chairman of the American Staffing Association (ASA); he currently serves on ASA's Board of Directors and is a Certified Staffing Professional (CSP).

Dan holds a Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration from California State University, Fullerton. He is a faithful friend to the Mihaylo College of Business and Economics, serving as a past member of the Dean's Advisory Board; sponsoring the Dean's Summer Golf Classic scholarship fundraiser for well over a decade; serving as a member of the Cornerstone Society; and helping make the University's new business building a reality. In 2000, Dan received the College's Salute to Business Leaders Award, and in 2002, Dan was named by Cal State Fullerton as its Distinguished Alumni Honoree.

In his "spare time," Dan enjoys surfing, skiing, golf, and wine collecting. He also has a very robust travel schedule, including active participation in the USC Athletic Scholarship Club and USC Football.
