Annette Feliciani is President of AEF Systems Consulting, a professional consulting firm that specializes in providing a full range of management consulting services to both the public and the private sector.

In 1992, after nine years with the firm of Deloitte & Touche, Annette established AEF Systems Consulting as a premier consulting firm dedicated to helping firms reach their project goals and objectives through the use of qualified consultants. Since that time, she has enjoyed a reputation for exceptional quality and customer service while assisting many organizations, such as the cities of Anaheim, Los Angeles, Pasadena and Rancho Cucamonga; the counties of Los Angeles, Orange, San Bernardino and Ventura; the Metropolitan Water District, Quest Diagnostics, Sonic Foods, Del Taco, the Disney Stores, St. Joseph Health System, and the Orange County Fire Authority.

Annette graduated from California State University, Fullerton with a Bachelor of Arts in Finance. She is currently Chair of the Cal State Fullerton Philanthropic Foundation; has served on the Alumni Association Board of Directors as President, Past-President and Vice President of Programs; and serves on the University's Front & Center Blue Ribbon Committee. She is also a champion for the Mihaylo College of Business and Economics as a Cornerstone Society member. In addition, Annette is President-Elect of the Orange/Villa Park Chapter of National Charity League, a mother-daughter philanthropic organization.

Annette is married to Finance alumnus Bryan Fitzpatrick '78; they have one daughter and reside in Orange, California. She enjoys travel, wine and staying physically fit through a variety of sporting activities.
