Khanh T. Tran

Mr. Tran became chief executive officer of Aviation Capital Group (ACG), Pacific Life’s global commercial jet aircraft leasing subsidiary, on January 1, 2016. Prior to assuming leadership of ACG, he was president of Pacific Life with responsibility for its asset management, corporate development, corporate financial, and investment management groups.

Mr. Tran joined Pacific Life in 1990 as treasurer and was promoted to vice president and treasurer in 1991. In 1995, Mr. Tran was named vice president of Corporate Development and treasurer. He was promoted to senior vice president and chief financial officer in June 1996 and elected to the board of directors of Pacific Life Insurance Company in August 1997. Mr. Tran was appointed executive vice president and chief financial officer in April 2001, and also became the chief investment officer for Pacific Life in January 2011. He was named president of Pacific Life in 2012.

Mr. Tran began his career with United California Bank, followed by Flying Tiger Line, Inc., then the world’s largest global air freight company and was with The Vons Companies, Inc., a supermarket chain in Southern California that was a KKR leverage buyout portfolio company, prior to joining Pacific Life.