Barbara Berlin

Barbara Berlin is a managing director in PwC’s Governance Insights Center, which strives to strengthen the connection between directors, executive teams and investors by helping them navigate the evolving governance landscape.

With more than 20 years of experience at PwC, Barbara brings extensive knowledge in governance matters including cybersecurity and emerging technologies to organizations. She is a well-known speaker on a variety of governance topics.

Barbara has authored and contributed to many PwC governance publications, including the Risk Oversight Series, Technology Series for board members, and Overseeing cyber risk. She has earned the CERT Certificate in Cybersecurity Oversight, issued by the CERT Division of the Software Engineering Institute at Carnegie Mellon University.

Barbara is a Certified Public Accountant (licensed in New York and New Jersey) and is a graduate of the State University of New York at Geneseo with a B.S. in Accounting. She lives in New York with her husband and three children.