Overview:

Best-in-class service, stewardship, independence, seamlessness, and transparency – these are the five core values that define the talented professionals at Andersen. We are committed to hiring highly motivated individuals who desire to enhance their career and make a distinct impact. Andersen is one of the largest independent tax firms in the United States, providing a wide range of tax, valuation, financial advisory, and related consulting services to individuals, commercial clients, and alternative investment funds. Andersen is the founding member of Anderson Global, an international association of legally separate, independent member firms with over 4,500 professionals worldwide. In the U.S., Andersen has more than 1,000 personnel located in 19 cities across the country. Our team of top advisors has extensive backgrounds in international accounting firms, law firms, IRS, and state taxing authorities. We demonstrate our commitment to our people through programs like our Women’s, Veterans’, and Diversity initiatives, which allow us to maintain both a positive and supportive work environment. We aim to be the benchmark for quality in our industry and serve as the standard by which other firms are measured.

At Andersen, we offer a rewarding career path for exceptional and motivated individuals. From the moment your employment begins, you will be exposed to a wide variety of projects that will give you the opportunity to stand out and make a difference. Additionally, due to our favorable Managing Director to Associate ratio, you will receive significant hands-on mentoring from our senior professionals who are invested in your growth and development. We foster an environment based on learning and allow our employees to grow through hands-on work experience, participation in local office and national training programs, and strong mentoring relationships. Through our sustained growth and best-in-class service, we can offer substantial long-term career opportunities and the tools you need to become an emerging leader. If you want to be a part of a growing and exciting organization, then consider your opportunities with Andersen – a name from the past, a firm for the future.

Description:

Valuation Interns serve as members of various client service teams, and are exposed to diverse industries and types of companies/assets. The Valuation Services group performs valuations of closely held companies, intangible assets, derivatives, and other assets for tax and financial statement reporting, mergers and acquisitions, strategic planning, and other purposes. Interns are staffed on engagements similar to an Associate and have the opportunity to develop a broad skillset through performing company, industry, and market research, spreadsheet modeling, financial analysis, report writing, and participating in client discussions. Interns receive formal and on-the-job training to develop their technical skills.

Knowledge and Skills Requirements:

- Pursuing a Bachelor’s degree in Accounting, Finance, Economics or other field that would provide a strong background for qualitative and quantitative reasoning
- A minimum GPA of 3.0
- Strong multitasking and organizational skills
- Self-motivated and able to work in a deadline-driven environment
- Excellent communication skills, both written and verbal
- Strong interpersonal skills
- Ability to interact with and gain the respect of all levels of internal and client personnel
